For some reason, it is easier to genuflect in reverence to the presence of Christ in the tabernacle of a church, than to genuflect in reverence to the same presence of Christ in another person's soul. We wrongly believe that God divides himself, placing himself in one place in preference to another. It doesn't work that way. Love of God and love of neighbor are intimately and inseparably connected because the essence and spark of God's very presence is in all creation. God's presence is just as real in the one who is good, as in the one who is bad, and the one who is just, and the one who is unjust.

Our brains get in the way of truly contemplating the awesomeness of this truth. We like to separate things into boxes, the sheep from the goats and the deserving from the undeserving. But, with God there are no distinctions such as this. Our human classifications, subdivisions, and definitions hold no power or have any weight in God's eyes. Sadly, we relate to God and to each other as if they do.

We cannot be deaf to the world's pain. It is not about having, hoarding, accumulating, acquiring, securing, storing, protecting, owning, claiming, or any of the other human terms we use to distinguish mine from yours. We put so much power in these words and that power, even though we may not always realize it, can cause those words and the distinctions they carry to wound and hurt others. We have the whole order of things wrong, but we are so set on preserving this order that we are absolutely afraid to do it any other way. We go through hoops trying to convince ourselves why the perils of the person seeking a new place to call home are not our perils that we turn our back and justify closing our doors. It makes perfect sense to us. Yet, it makes no sense in terms of our faith. It doesn't square with any of the words found in Sacred Scripture or in any time-tested teaching of the church.

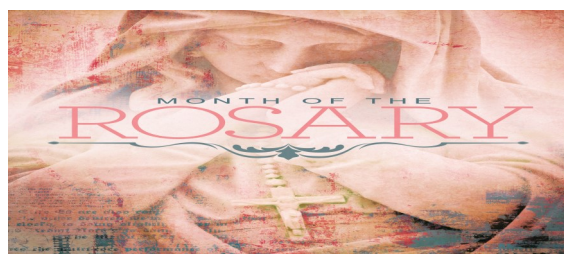

We have it all reversed. We know that we do because when Jesus speaks about such things and the words of the Old Testament prophets ring out again, we start to feel uncomfortable and anxious. What we do, directly or by omission, to one of the least of these little ones we do to God. It is quite possible that some of what we are doing personally, economically, politically, globally, and even religiously is doing more harm than good. Let's ponder that a bit.

The Journey of Loss and Grief

When Jesus' friend Lazarus dies, the Gospel of John tells us that "Jesus wept" (Jn 11:35). We experience many losses in our lives and the death of someone we love is just one of them. We also lose relationships, roles, bodily functions, and communities. Grief is a normal response to loss, yet grief is chaotic and hard, so much so that we want to avoid it. But grief is the only way through loss. How can we better understand the journey of grief and how to take it in a faithful way? How does God call us to grieve and, finally, recover from our grief?

Thursday, November 5, Webinar presentation from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Event is Free. Registration is required (register at least five days in advance of the event); please visit www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, call 320-363-3560, or email theologyday@csbsju.edu to register.

Share the Spirit

For many local families, it's difficult to find joy in the holiday season while struggling to provide a wonderful holiday experience. Our community neighbors have been hit particularly hard this year and with your support, you can help ease this worry for families in need by participating in Catholic Charities Share the Spirit program. Share the Spirit matches families experiencing hardship during the holiday season with individuals and organizations who wish to help. All sponsored families are nominated by area social workers or education professionals. When you sponsor a family, you receive a list of three wants and three needs for each household member. Families of all sizes are available for Share the Spirit sponsorship. We ask that donors spend about $70 per family member, which includes $60 for gifts and $10 for a grocery gift card."

To sponsor a Share the Spirit family, visit ccstcloud.org/share-the-spirit and complete and submit the online donor form. Gift-wrapped items are to be delivered to the former Save-A-Lot at 3316 W Division St, St. Cloud, on Thursday, December 10, between the hours of 8am and 5pm. You will receive information about your family via email on or around November 16, 2020. Or look for the Share the Spirit Tree at St. Francis Xavier beginning November 21st and take one or more tags. Return gifts to SFX to be delivered December 10th.

St. Francis Xavier Cemetery

The water supply has been turned off in the cemetery. As we prepare for winter, we ask that you please clear items off of gravesites and remove pots from plant stands. All items must be removed from the cemetery by November 1st so that nothing ends up getting buried under the snow. Winter burials require snow blowing and hidden objects can damage equipment and be dangerous to workers. Any items left after November 1st will be removed by cemetery personnel and may be discarded. Please note, it is suggested but not required that plant stands be removed. Thank you.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He Would Love First!

October 25, 2020

WOW! What a rollercoaster we have all been on! I don't think anyone thought - back on March 13th when we moved our fish fry to a drive thru-that this is where we would be when back to school time came this fall. This year has been, and will continue to be, one like no other. That seems to be the theme for 2020. But, does it have to be? What if we could change the current theme? What if we shifted our mindset and found positive things to love about 2020 instead of the anxiety and stress? How long would our list be? Would it include more time with family, perhaps, or learning a new hobby? Reconnecting with an old friend or being able to enjoy the quieter times around the dinner table? Each year, we choose a theme that becomes our school's motto, of sorts. From the beatitudes, to the fruits of the spirit, these themes help us to live our faith each and every day. This year, our theme centers around What Would Jesus Do? and the beautiful response He Would Love First! Again, it's what we need more of each and every day. It reminds me of a favorite Beatles song, "All We Need is Love".

There is a LOT to love about SKD! We are starting our seventh week of school. While many things have changed, our cleaning procedures, wearing masks, social distancing; the things that our families love the most have remained: a dedicated staff that is second to none, high academic excellence, an emphasis on the whole child, and creating our SKD community, a home away from home. A family filled with love. We love our staff! They are the heart and soul of our school. This amazing group of people has never worked harder or with more love than this year. Every day, it seems, a new challenge arises and the staff at SKD finds creative solutions each and every time. They are also essential workers and are making a huge difference in our world. We love having new members join our team, bringing new and creative ideas. Theresa Slivnik is one of our kindergarten teachers this fall. Theresa subbed for us last winter and spring and graduated from the College of St. Benedict in December. Emily Schimerowski joined our fifth grade team. Emily graduated from St. Cloud State University this spring. Joining our sixth grade team is Erin Hacker. Erin is also a spring graduate of the College of St. Benedict. Katie Randolph has joined our team to help in our preschool rooms and our lunch program. Katie has subbed and volunteered at SKD. Holly Cecko has moved from the office and Sunset program to teaching phy-ed. We love having our classroom and halls filled with children's voices, laughter and energy. We are excited to be in-person learning with students five days per week. While we are prepared and offering distance learning options, nothing compares to face-to-face learning. We love the continued support from the members of our parishes and our families. Without your prayers and support, SKD would look very different. Please know that we hold each and every one of you up in daily prayer.

As we continue through these fall days and into winter, we continue to share peace, hope and love!

"Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." "And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love".
